Dear Mr. McGrath:

In accordance with my letter to you of January 8th, we have reviewed the application of [redacted] for a position with the Central Intelligence Agency in the light of current openings. We find, however, that nothing is available at present in which we can properly utilize his experience and background. He has been advised that his application will remain active for future consideration.

Your interest in bringing his name to my attention is appreciated and I regret that we are unable to make use of his services at this time.

Sincerely,

15/10/51

The Honorable J. Howard McGrath
United States Attorney General
Washington 25, D. C.
